MRS. SYLVIA ALYENE WINS APRIL ESSO SLOGAN CONTEST

Winner of the Esso Slogan Contest for April is Mrs. Sylvia H. Alyene of Dadelstraat 9. Her slogan "Wie Voorzichtig Rijdt, Die Leed Vermijdt" ("He Who Drives Carefully Will Avoid Suffering") was selected from among 800 entries. Mrs. Alyene chose an Osterizer from the various prizes made available by Esso Marketing. Her prize was presented to her by Bety Ecury, chair-main of the Safe Traffic Committee during a TV program on April 30.

MEMORIAL DAY COMMEMORATED TODAY

During a ceremony in Oranjestad this morning, the Netherlands and Antillean World War II dead were honored. On this occasion, Lago assistant General Manager Eugene C. Foley placed a wreath at the memorial monument on the Adriaan Lacle Boulevard.

ELECTRICAL POWER DEMAND REACHES NEW HIGH

The electrical power demand at the Utilities Division reached a peak of 56 megawatts yesterday. This represents a new high. By the time all the HDS units are in operation, it is expected that the power demand will reach 64 megawatts.

JOY COMPRESSOR AT NO. 2 P.H. RETURNED TO SERVICE

The No. 3 Joy Air Compressor at No. 2 Power House will be returned to service today. The compressor was down for repairs during approximately two weeks.

THREE TAR BOXES OUT OF SERVICE

Nos. 2, 3 and 4 primary Tar boxes have been taken out of service for the repair of leaks. The tar boxes will be out of service about three days.

IT'S PLAIN ARITHMETIC

There is a great deal of thought to be given to the fact that accidents:

1. Subtract from your pleasure.
2. Add to your discomfort.
3. Divide your income.
4. Multiply your worry.

So it pays to be careful. Play it safe all the time!
